Dear Friend of the JCC:

You can count on Sid Jacobson JCC to bring you the best there is in cultural arts programming. We cherish the arts. Why? Simply put, it illuminates our lives and enriches our world. It brings people together and fosters community.

We are thrilled to announce several new cultural arts programs that will be taking place in the coming months.

As part of the Irene & Ronald Cohen Spotlight Speaker Series, Fiona Davis, bestselling author of The Address and The Dollhouse will be speaking and signing books on Tuesday, April 10 at 10:30am. Additionally, Joy Mangano, entrepreneur, inventor (Miracle Mop, Huggable Hangers and more) as well as the inspiration behind the acclaimed movie Joy, starring Jennifer Lawrence, will be speaking and signing her book, Inventing Joy on Tuesday, May 8 at 10:30am.

And there is still more great cultural arts news. On the evening of Thursday, May 10, the former Prime Minister of Israel, Ehud Barak, will be speaking here in his first New York and exclusive Long Island appearance. More information will follow as to sponsorship and "meet and greet" opportunities to benefit the Sid Jacobson JCC's new Randie Waldbaum Malinsky Center for Israel.

While we invite you to share in these and all our wonderful cultural arts programs, we also ask for your support. Ticket sales alone do not cover the expenses to bring these first class offerings to our community. Sponsorship support is vitally important and we have a special opportunity that we would like to offer to you.

Our popular Author Breakfast + Book Signing series this past year (2017-2018) was sold out within days. If you sign up now to be an early sponsor at any level of our 2018-2019 Author Breakfast + Book Signing series (new series to begin fall 2018), you will get all the benefits of that sponsorship level (see attached) plus as an added bonus, you will receive free ticket(s) to both the upcoming Fiona Davis and Joy Mangano programs. All sponsors will enjoy preferred seating.

In order to receive this special bonus, you must sign up no later than March 26, 2018.

While individual tickets for all events will be available for purchase, please consider becoming a sponsor.

With much appreciation,

Jodi Rosenthal
